Avant Aerospace Announces New Hire of Jay Roever and Danny Hoosier to Sales & Materials Team

Grapevine, TX, July 13, 2017- Avant Aerospace is pleased to announced they have grown their Sales and Materials team with the addition of Jay Roever and Danny Hoosier.

Jay Roever has 36 years of aviation experience in previous positions with AVMATS, West Star Aviation, and Falcon Jet. As Sales Manager for Avant Aerospace Jay will oversee the parts sales groups in East Alton, IL and Grand Junction, CO.

Danny Hoosier comes to Avant with 38 years of industry expertise. He has experience from supply chain to director level positions with Midcoast/Jet Aviation. In his prior position with Jet Aviation he was acting Director of Procurement. Danny will be Avant Aerospace's Materials Manager, and he will be responsible for overseeing the Materials group.

"Jay and Danny add the extra expertise we need for current and future expansion for parts, supplies and support on various business and corporate airframes," said Al Zito, President, Avant Aerospace.

Avant Aerospace is located in Grapevine TX, and is a leading part supplier of Dassault Falcon Jet spares and equipment. Their established reputation for acquisition and supply of top Falcon spares, equipment and tooling supports F2000, F900 and F50 aircraft. Since the acquisition by West Star Aviation, Avant Aerospace is expanding their parts expertise to other business and corporate airframes.

Avant Aerospace is a wholly owned subsidiary of West Star Aviation, LLC. Avant will continue to operate under its unique brand while offering West Star Aviation customers the benefits of their products, capabilities and experience.
